

FORGED BRASS BALL VALVE ECONOMICAL SERIES

With And Without Strainer with Extended Neck

With And Without Standard Neck

“RC” make forged brass ball valve with and without Strainer provides the quality needed for piping work. “RC” make forged brass ball valve with and without Strainer comes with standard neck and extended design, whereas standard neck design ball valve is most widely used in the plumbing and firefighting industry. Extended neck design is specifically designed keeping in mind requirement of H.V.A.C. industry. All materials are used for handle and extension construction are of non rusting material, 50mm extension length for perfect insulation fit & integral memory stop helps in navigation position when valve is insulated.

BASIC FEATURES

- Self lubricating seats
- Integral memory stop
- Low torque designs
- Blow out proof spindle
- Reversible handle designs

FORGED BRASS BALL VALVE ECONOMICAL SERIES

Benefits Of Extended Neck

